Children of Mrs. E. J. Oney planned a covered dish dinner Thursday as a surprise honoring their mother's sixty-seventh birthday. Mrs. Oney is another of the oldest pioneers in this community, having come here about thirty-four years ago, and the town of Oney was named for them. A very delicious dinner was enjoyed by a large crowd and Mrs. Oney received many nice gifts.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Orville Bales, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tackett, Mrs. Warnie Willits, Mr. Otis Compton, Mrs. Alva Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Tidwell, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Oney and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Oney and children, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sanders and son William, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stewart and children, Mrs. Ruth Vanderpool, Misses Edna Chambers and Ruby Dean.

Shirley Wilson left Monday morning for Fort Sam Houston, after a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wilson. Shirley is looking fine and enjoying army life with the Fourth Hospital company at Fort Sam Houston.

A few relatives and friends surprised Mrs. Nola McLane Sunday, the occasion being her birthday. Those present were Mrs. C. C. Griffin, Mrs. George Devine and son LeRoy, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hamilton, Mrs. Jewell Elliott and children, and Mrs. Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stuart spent Friday evening and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Crandich spent Sunday evening in the Wilson home.

Those honoring Mrs. Virgil Lane with a shower Wednesday afternoon were Mrs. Bill Bennett, Mrs. Jim McLane, Mrs. Sam Hamilton, Mrs. George Berry, Mrs. Ruth Vanderpool, Mrs. Leola Gray, Mrs. Elliott Salyer, Mrs. Irene Emmerson, Mrs. Effie Brakebill and Miss Alice Lazenne.

Howard Stuart and J. D. Wilson accompanied Shirley Wilson to Anadarko Monday.

Mrs. Marie Crandich of Binger spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Crandich.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Howard moved on the Harry Crail farm, one half mile west of Oney last week.

Mrs. Clarence Edwards who has been ill, is now a letter at this time.

Jim Kaddoko, manager of the cooperative gin at Oney, Dave Adkinson, J. A. Lane and Ryan Jackson left Monday to attend the Farmers Union convention at Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Jim Kaddoko is spending a few days with her parents near Eakly.

TONKAWA

School News

We have had eleven new pupils added to our roll the past two weeks which makes our enrollment fifty-three.

Our daily program has been reorganized in order that all the classwork could be taken care of.

The contest in which the pupils are participating this month seems to be very successful. The captains are Loldie Brown and Lloyd McGuire.

The fifth and sixth grade have been correlating English and art in the construction of English posters. Maxine Frese and Dorothy Wheeler received the prizes for the best ones.

The boys manual training class are finishing some very attractive "whatnots."

PAINS THAT CARDUI HELPS

For months! Guaranteed, tired nerves run-down women ought to try Cardui. So many who build up with the help of purely vegetable Cardui overcome periodic pains. At times I would cramp and feel mighty bad," writes Mrs. M. L. Brady of Swanson, S. C. "I knew that I needed something to help me. My mother had taken Cardui and had told me about it. It helped me. I find it a very good tonic as well as a help to pain and nervous condition. Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician!

Is Your Home Protected ?

Fire is always unexpected; next time it may be your home! In even the most carefully regulated homes small fire hazards occasionally go unnoticed, until after the damage has been done. Protect the investment in your home and furniture through adequate insurance. The small cost of this protection will be returned to you many times in the feeling of added security and the knowledge that even fire can't destroy that which you have built up.

Our representative will be glad to call and discuss your particular insurance problem, wherever it is convenient to you.

We write all types of insurance with all of the leading companies.
