MERKEL IN GREPE

Let man reach the third station. It was then that the silver lining of the dark cloud of death began to appear. The quick arm of Shorty Lewis shattered their hopes. When a gun was made for second Hunt shot the sphere through the air to that plate and before a sheep could shake its tail Shorty had passed it to Morgan who tagged Berry a few feet from the bag. It was no use, but the playful youngsters kept up the effort until their first half of the sixth had been played. Big John Harris made the Clubbers work but they were equal to the occasion. Two armies were made, a wild throw by Morgan and another error was charged to Green.

Another game will be played this afternoon, after which the Clubbers will return home and Manager Starnett promises some good contest on the home diamond next week.

Banner: Merkel Greps and Hunt.

Some notes on the game.

Abilene put the hook-on on von Grepe and then downed the clubbers.

Big John pitched nine runners round, gave up few hits and then didn't half try.

This shattered all precedents in short out baseball history for this section.

Big John tapped one and ran to the initial pillow like a ball playing at-tilly.

Hunt and "Shorty" shattered their only chance of making a smear on the early chart.

In the opening of the game Green reached up and pulled down a wicked one that looked like a hit.

A Merkel lady fan told the home boys some story that those Abilene fellows were more so and they are not very fast country.

The Clubbers are enjoying the vacation and want Starnett to make a shabby game with Tebo.

They were in the seventh for the home talent, squaring out two good ones, but it was no use.

"Shorty" Lewis is all to the effect and it will be hard to give him up to the Mutual Club.

"Cup" Farnett had an eagle eye and cut out a ball during the game.

Col. Geo. A. Berry was in the line midst of the grandstand but looked like he had just received some bad news from an Abilene friend.

Bonnie E. A. Berry is a good one but a business engagement compelled him to leave before the close.
